WEBB COUNTY APPRAISAL DISTRICT ANNOUNCES NEW WEBSITE

With the recent mailing of approximately 84,000 Notices of Appraised Value, the Webb County Appraisal District is pleased to announce the launch of its newly renovated web page. This new site is intended to serve as a valuable resource to educate the public, with a number of tools available so that property owners may research and locate data in a more user-friendly environment.

Other features of the new website include an updated property search section which allows users to access appraisal records and generate a map. Maps may be created by selecting the “view map” button which appears towards the right side of the screen once a search is initiated.

The District encourages all Webb County residents to visit the new website www.webbcad.org, and take advantage of the information which has been made available.
